Reech Capital PLC

EMPLOYMENT CONTRACT

FOR

Guillaume Blacher

EMPLOYMENT CONTRACT

REECH CAPITAL PLC of CGNU Tower, 1 Undershaft, London EC3P 3DQ ("the Company") hereby agrees to employ Guillaume Blacher ("the Employee") in accordance with the following terms and conditions: -

Commencement of Employment

1. The employment of the Employee under this Agreement shall commence on 1 February 2002. The Employee's date of commencement of employment for statutory purposes is 23 August 1999.
2. The employment shall (except as provided in paragraph 4 and 8 below) be for an indefinite period subject to termination by the Company or the Employee as follows:
 - (a) 6 Months notice in writing by the Company to the Employee.
 - (b) 6 Months notice in writing by the Employee to the Company.
3. The Company may at its absolute discretion elect to terminate the employment of the Employee with immediate effect by paying to the Employee salary in lieu of notice.

Duties

4. The Employee shall during his employment:-
 - (a) faithfully serve the Company in the capacity of Senior Managing Director, or in such other capacity as the Board may from time to time determine;
 - (b) perform and exercise any duties and powers on behalf of the Company or any Associated Company as the Board (or anyone authorised by the Board) may from time to time confer upon or assign to him;
 - (c) if the Board so directs cease performing or exercising any part or all of those duties and powers and the Company reserves the right to assign to the Employee duties of a different nature to those which are consistent with the job title set out in clause 4(a); and
 - (d) perform his duties and exercise his powers jointly with any other person appointed by the Board to act jointly with him; and
 - (e) perform such services for any other person firm or company outside the Group at such locations for such periods as the Company thinks fit and enter into any agreement with such other person as the Company may reasonably require to give full effect to such arrangement; and
 - (f) at all times and in all respects conform to and comply with the lawful and reasonable directions of the Board;
 - (g) unless prevented by sickness or other incapacity devote the whole of his time attention and abilities during his hours of work (which shall be normal business hours and such additional hours as may be necessary for the proper performance of his duties) to the business and affairs of the Group for which he performs duties;

- (h) work at the Company's offices at CGNU Tower, 1 Undershaft, London EC3P 3DQ or such other place of business of the Company as the Company may reasonably require for the proper performance of the Employee's duties and the Employee may be required to travel on the business of the Company or any Associated Company for which he is required to perform his duties; and
- (i) not without the prior written consent of the Company (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed) directly or indirectly carry on or be employed, engaged, concerned or interested in any other business, trade or occupation whatsoever.

Working Time

- 5. The Employee agrees with the Company that the Employee is an individual where, on account of the specific characteristics of the activities in which he is engaged under this Agreement, the duration of his working time is not measured or pre-determined or can be determined by the Employee himself and as a result he is exempt from Regulations 4(1) and (2), 6(1), (2) and (7), 10(1), 11(1) and (2) and 12(1) of the Working Time Regulations 1998 (as amended).

Suspension from duties

- 6. The Company shall not be under any obligation to provide the Employee with any work and the Company may at any time whilst the Company is investigating a formal complaint of misconduct made against the Employee or at any time after either party has given notice to terminate suspend the Employee and/or exclude him from all or any premises of the Company and/or require him not to contact any colleagues or clients and not to access electronic data belonging to the Company via home computers, modems or otherwise for any period not exceeding 6 months.

Summary Termination

- 7. The Company shall be entitled to terminate the Employee's employment without notice or pay in lieu of notice by reason of (including, without limitation) the Employee's gross misconduct, gross negligence in the performance of his duties, serious or persistent breach of Company policies or procedures or of this Agreement.

Remuneration

- 8. The Company shall pay to the Employee (monthly in arrears in 12 equal instalments) gross salary of GBP 112,000 per annum from which income tax and employee's National Insurance contributions will be deducted. The Employee's annual gross salary shall at the absolute discretion of the Company be subject to review annually. The Company shall reimburse the Employee in respect of all reasonable travelling, accommodation and other similar out-of-pocket expenses wholly exclusively and necessarily incurred by him in or about the performance of his duties.

The Employee may during the continuance of his employment be entitled to be paid a bonus of such amounts (if any) at such times and subject to such conditions as the Company may in its absolute discretion decide based upon overall Company performance, the relative performance of individual projects to which the Employee may be assigned, and upon personal merit. Any bonus entitlement is conditional upon the Employee being in employment and/or not being subject to notice of termination at the date of payment by the Company.

Any bonus payable pursuant to this clause shall be paid to the Employee with his February salary instalment less income tax and employee's National Insurance contributions as required by law.

Share Schemes

9. The Employee will be eligible to participate in the Reech Capital PLC All Employee Share Option Plan ("the Plan"). Participation in the Plan is governed by and subject to the rules of the Plan in force from time to time.
10. The Employee will also be eligible to participate in the Reech Capital PLC Executive Management Incentive Option Scheme ("EMI Option Scheme"). Participation in the EMI Option Scheme is governed by and subject to the rules of the EMI Option Scheme in force from time to time.

Pension

- 11.1 The Company operates a Group Personal Pension Plan ("Pension Plan") to which the Employee is eligible to join. The Company's contributions are paid at the end of each month. Participation in the Pension Plan is subject to the rules of the Pension Plan and terms of the trust deed in force from time to time. The Pension Plan is non-contributory with the level of contribution from the Company as follows: -

Age 34 and below	6%
Age 35 – 44	10%
Age 45 and above	15%

A Contracting Out certificate is not in force in respect of the employment of the employee. However, the employee can personally elect to Contract Out of the State Earnings Related Pension Scheme (SERPS) direct with the DSS through the Pension Plan.

- 11.2 The Company's retirement age is 60 years old and the Employee's employment shall terminate automatically on attaining that age.

Additional Benefits

12. The following additional benefits are available to eligible Employees:-
 - (a) Group Life Scheme – in the event of the Employee's death whilst in service with the Company, the Reech Capital plc Death in Service Scheme provides for a lump sum payment equal to 4 times basic annual salary, subject to applicable Inland Revenue Limits. The provision of this benefit is subject to acceptance by and the requirements of the relevant insurers.
 - (b) Long Term Disability Insurance Scheme – the Company has established a Long Term Disability Insurance for the benefit of Employees. This provides for a benefit equal to 75% of annual salary (less the State single persons long-term income benefit) after an Employee has been absent for a continuous period of 26 weeks due to illness or injury. The Scheme provides a monthly income up to the age of 60 (age 55 in the case of an Employee who is a Dealer), or to the date on which the Employee returns to work, if earlier. The current Scheme provides for benefits to increase by 5% per annum during the course of payment. The provision of this benefit is subject to acceptance by and the requirements of the relevant insurers, including maximum benefit levels for higher earners.

- (c) Private Medical Insurance Scheme – this benefit is available to each Employee and provides cover for an Employee on an individual basis.
- (d) Participation by any Employee in any scheme referred to in this clause is subject always to the insurers of such scheme being willing to accept the Employee into participation on reasonable terms. Participation is also subject to the terms of any scheme in force from time to time and to the right of the Company to vary, amend or discontinue any scheme at any time.

Holiday and Holiday Pay

13. The Employee shall (in addition to the usual public and bank holidays) be entitled during the continuance of his employment to 25 working days' paid holiday in each holiday year of the Company (from January to December) to be taken at mutually convenient times. Subject to the provisions of the Working Time Regulations 1998 the Employee shall not be entitled to payment in lieu of any holiday entitlement which has not been taken in respect of any holiday year. On the termination of employment the Employee's entitlement to accrued holiday (accruing at the rate of 2.08 days per month) shall be calculated pro rata in respect of each completed month of service in the holiday year in which his employment terminates and shall be paid to the Employee. If the Employee has taken holiday in excess of his pro rata entitlement, the excess shall be reimbursed to the Company by the Employee and deducted from any other amount owed to the Employee on termination of his employment (which the Employee hereby authorises).

Statutory Information

14. The following additional information is provided to the Employee in compliance with Section 1 of Employment Rights Act 1996:-
- (a) the Employee shall be entitled to receive a sick pay in accordance with the statutory sick pay scheme in respect of any period of absence due to sickness and any payments to the Employee in excess of his statutory sick pay entitlement shall be at the absolute discretion of the Company;
 - (b) There is no formal disciplinary or grievance procedure in relation to the Employee's employment. The Employee shall be expected to maintain the highest standards of integrity and behaviour. If the Employee is not satisfied with any disciplinary decision taken in relation to him, he may apply in writing within 14 days of that decision to the Board whose decision should be final. If the Employee has any grievance in relation to his employment, he may raise it in writing with the Board whose decision shall be final. This clause 14 is not intended to be of contractual effect.

Confidentiality

15. The Employee shall not (other than in the proper performance of his duties) at any time either during his employment or after its termination disclose or communicate to any person or use for his own benefit or the benefit of any person other than the Company or an Associated Company any of their confidential information or other business information which may come to his knowledge in connection with his employment and the Employee shall during the continuance of the employment use his best endeavours to prevent the unauthorised publication or misuse of any confidential information provided that such restrictions shall cease to apply to any confidential information which may enter the public domain other than through the default of the Employee.

Intellectual Property

16. If at any time in the course of his employment the Employee makes or discovers or participates in the making or discovery of any intellectual property relating to or capable of being used in the business of the Company or any Associated Company he shall immediately disclose full details to the Company and at the expense of the Company he shall do all things necessary or desirable for obtaining appropriate forms of protection for the intellectual property and for vesting all rights in the same in the Company or its nominee.

Employee Covenants

17. The Employee hereby covenants with the Company that he will not for the period of 12 months after the termination of his employment (without the prior written consent of the Company) either alone or on behalf of any person directly or indirectly:-

I don't fill comfortable signing it so long after the fact (I left Reech 2 years ago). I would need to check with some lawyers and with my current employer's lawyers and to be frank, I don't have the time and don't want to go through the trouble internally.
 Sorry.

Dear Guillaume: I just left you a brief voice message. Some time ago I remember speaking with you by phone shortly when you had just arrived in New York and you were most kind in helping with another signature document for your patent.

Could you please forward back by e-mail to Valerie, our patent help at Woodcock, and me the best address to send the above signature document to you for your signature?

Dear Valerie: When Guillaume responds, could you please federal express the signature document to his attention with a return federal express inside so that he can easily return the signed document to you.

Thank you both for your help.

Kind Regards,< BR>
